CHAPTER 1 INDY POINT OF VIEW.

Damn, I really hate this hell hole, I'm constantly getting sick off these fumes that those humans smoke on. My brother Obsion, who is smaller than me and is also my little brother, is near me, watching me curl up around this unhatched egg to keep it warm.

That day, the humans came, with that sharp object that knocks our asses out for a bit, and stabbed me with it. While I was out I had a Weird dream, about having lost obsion and having a pack who had a terrible ending and I was about to die when I, heard It.

A cry of pain, It was not Obsion's so that relaxed me a little, but then I notice Obsion was not with me anymore, and then I heard Him roar, My name, INDY The humans were abusing him, What did my brother do to them to deserve that treatment?

They finally stopped hitting him, but then they put him in a separate container and filled it with something like the smoke but, stronger and more acidity He roared in pain, and I could smell his flesh burning but then I saw, what I could never get out of my head...My brothers hide was burning off of him I was crying like him, but he was crying of pain, I was crying of the pain of watching and not being able to do anything.

I cursed at them yelling at them to go to hell, and I would kill all of they're sorry asses if they don't stop hurting my brother. Then one of those maniacs started to approach me, When he got closer, I noticed that his smell is the same as the one who took the egg that I was wrapped around before all this happened.

When my brother Obsion looked at me and saw the human coming at me he yelled to me, trying to tell me that these motherfuckers would not kill him this easily, but if they do it on me, it would hurt him a lot more then what's happening to him now.

CHAPTER 2 OBSESSION POINT OF VIEW

The next day they did some more of their gruesome shit to me again

"No, No, Stay away from Sisters, you no good humans!"

Shit, they just put something to cover my entire maw, If I can't use my voice then I just have to use body language instead. I started to thump my tail on the cool metal ground that I was suffering in, It hurt me a lot to constantly, smash my tail into the ground to try to talk to my sister.

No, It can't end like this. I wanted to have a family, to be with my sister, to run free, and to live life to the fullest, not, to die this death, from something that I don't even know the name of. Then that despicable human picked up the roof to stab my sister with those blasted sharp objects that knock our asses out

That fetor human made his unjustifiable choice, to pick up my sister and try to stab her with that blasphemy needle, to my udder relief she made a move of her own one that brought more than tears to my eyes.

She bit his hand off, not part of it, but his whole hand off, I could hear his ear bursting wail, then I saw all the blood gushing out of what was left of his forearm. The smell was beautiful smell, oh so good, it made me hungry, even though the pain, I cheered her on, then a beautiful irony happened, the one who is now missing his hand knocked over some of the same stuff they poured on me onto the guy who poured it on me, to start with.

CHAPTER 3 BLOWING THIS JOINT INDY'S POINT OF VIEW

"HAAAAA That was some funny shit" I yelled, Then it happened, our freedom out of this facility, and their torture chamber is no more. For with a humongous, thunderous cacophony of shrieking horns and yelling and then, a subtle noise like something moving fast in the air.

Then the temperature dramatically went up, a memorizing thing came up and was dancing, then I remember what that was, It was fire, but this time it's not on the human side, and being used on us, but them.

Then there was a noise that could be heard over that fucking annoying racket that is surrounding this place, then, I smelt it, gas then a blinding flash of something hit my whole body with enough force to break my tiny enclosure and blow that whole hell hole up.

"OBSION!" I yelled where are you.

"You must be noise blind or something for I'm right next to you, (cough)

"Oh, obsion my brother are you ok?" I asked in a very melancholy voice.

"Don't worry Indy I'm." Then he started uncontrollable coughing.

He then whispered to me "Big sister I'm really sick, my body is burning it feels like something is biting me everywhere, Please big (cough) sister please help me."

"Obsion," I said, "please forgive me."

(scoffs)"For what he said, I believe in you fully."

Without answering him I put my jaw over his wounded throat and bit down starting to suffocate my own brother until he went still, then I whispered I so sorry Obsion." Then I left him.

CHAPTER 4 OBSION'S POINT OF VIEW

"Indy" I wanted to say, but she started to chock me, So this is what she wants forgiveness for?

Then I blacked out, It was beautiful, no pain, I relived being with my small family of Indy and the unhatched egg.

Wait, the unhatched egg where was it, did it break or what I honestly do not know?

Then I smelt them, Something like me and they were debating, then I heard something that brought me out of the darkness, the egg was safe yet with something else.

I finally open my eyes and was blinded by darkness, I was In a pack and I was alive, these newcomers were helping me.

Chapter 5 indy's point of view

I ran away from his dead corpse crying, I want to demolish anything that stood against me I knew It was a stupid thing to think since I was still a baby, but I wanted my rage to be felt I wanted others to know what lost that night.

I was in the middle of conceived a plan when, I heard a twig crack to the left of me so I spun around to meet it, and I heard it.

She said," I'm sorry for your lost, I lost my mother, my sisters and I are hungry and lonely and want, to a company you, if that's ok with you?"

"Your lucky you had a mother. I was the mother to my brother who, I grew up alone with my brother who I had to kill and an egg, Oh my god, where that egg is it ok, what happened to it."

I'm so sorry Obsion, it was the only thing I could have done to stop your pain, Please forgive me, Brother, I swear to you, that I will try to find that egg If it's still around and raise it, but if it's hatched I will watch over them like your watching over me now.

Chapter 6 Sarah point of view

"Hey, Ken?" I said

(sigh) "Yes, Sarah?" He said.

"Do you think the humans are following us?" I asked in a scared voice.

"Sarah, he growled, sound kinda pissed off, why the hell would the be following us there scared and separated even we can take them and they're so much bigger than us."

"While I guess that makes sense, but do you think the survived that blast?" I asked

"He responded if we survived then some of them probably survive too."

"Fuck, why did you have to bring that up, you know I hate those odorous bastards." He said.

"Yeah I know you hate them, but I have to ask you a question now." He said

Ok, I will try to answer them if I can, so what is it you want to ask?"

"While we are almost of age to mate." He said

"Yeah so, I don't see where this is going."

"Ok, before I pussy out, I just going to say this without sugar coating this, Sarah would you be my mate, please."

"Kenny, I never thought you would ask, but for now we have to survive and get a bit older and find somewhere safe to make a nest before and passion happens.

"So is that a yes?" he asked, "your such an idiot, and It does mean yes," I answered him.

Chapter 7 Spinosaurus spooning

So the Humans are finally fucking dead, at least to my knowledge. My wife is going to be so mad now that she has to be with me instead of watching out for humans. Now I'm going to have a family with her and if the human starts to go after me when I'm with her they're going to be dessert for her.

When I arrived home I said, "Molly, guess what?"

She responded to me by saying "shut the fuck up, I'm trying to sleep you ignorant asshole."

"Sorry honey I know you're on your period, But...."

You lucky motherfucker that I too sore to get up and knock that grin and the perverted thoughts in your head out of it.

"I love you too honey," I said but know I can finally spoon have sex with

If you lay a claw on me I will kill you ok, NOW LET ME GET SOME REST.

Damn girl, you need a spouse In your life.

"Yeah, one better than your sorry ass," she answered me

"Who pissed In your nest," I asked

"you did". she said.

"So wait do you thinking about having a family?"

When she heard that, her eyes soften and said that will be nice, but we have to secure this area.

Chapter 8 Obsion point of view

“OWW, what the hell girl that hurts a lot!”

“OPPS, IM SO SORRY PLEASE FORGIVE ME!”

“THEN STOP YELLING IN MY EAR, SAPHIRA!”

“Ok..... Are you hunger or something?” she asked in a scared voice like what is there to be afraid of. If only that was the truth

“Not really, I’m just sad and thirsty and in pain.”

“Ok, still no sign of your sister yet or the egg, but the Spinosaurus are going at it.”

“Sorry, I was not there to see it,” I responded

“You would have been scarred for life.”

“Like I’m not literally scarred already.”

“I’m going out for a bit.”

“Do you really think that's a good idea,” Saphira asked me

“Yes, just don’t tell anyone, OK.”

OK. she said

“YOU’RE NOT GOING ANYWHERE!” I heard.

“Great, just what I need the alpha bossing me around.”

“While I’m alpha you’re going nowhere.” Then a thought came to me beat the alpha and beating him, while making me the alpha then no rules, I make the rules

Chapter 9 Ken point of view

"So If we survive we can make our own pack," I asked her

"Of course, you are you stupid."

"So who would be the alpha?"

"Is it obvious, It will be me." said, Sarah.

Ummm, it really does not make sense since I'm a male, but I decide to say "yeah it does make sense."

That's not the resolution I had in my subconscious.

"Ok, you're the alpha Where do we go."

While first, we have to find a place to stay for a bit since we have been up for three nights in a row

So we slept that night and I had a very weird and terrifying nightmare, about death and destruction, something larger the spinosaurus killing Everything I woke up a startling dream.

Ken woke up beside me and stretched his skinny adorable legs out and asked me what's wrong.

I did not respond for the dream I had was too vivid and lifelike, I told him part of the truth saying "I saw you get slaughtered and then something killed me next.

Don't worry sweetheart I would never let anything touch you without going through me, but It did go through you, Relax He said, then I fell back to sleep.

Chapter 10 Spinosaurus Mollie point of view

"Hey, Alex."

"Yes, my beautiful love?"

(Sigh) why do I put up with your perverted bullshit, That's a rhetorical question, But as a was going to say I want to hunt, but not alone, and something tells me I will need you to help scare some people out

"Ok, so what do you want to hunt?"

"I want to hunt down a feeling."

"You could just ask me to help you make that feeling."

You simple minded fool, not that feeling A hunch I have."

"Ok, let's wait to tomorrow Alex said."

I said nothing and walked out, but I lift up my tail for a second and that's all he needs, he started to yell wait for me, stupid, hormonal, guy. I don't know why but I'm starting to like him, for his stupidity.

It was early in the morning and Still no luck Alex wanted to go home and have intercourse. Then I heard it I told him to shut up and get low. I told him to stay put, then I sneaked, and saw this wired dino that I have never seen before with an egg way to big to be there own.

I yelled at Alex to stand up and I came from behind them, I killed the one with the egg and Alex the other then he tried to eat the egg so, I clawed him, and he said," what the fuck, that's not our egg so let's eat it."

This is the hunch I had so we're going to keep it if you don't want to have sex with me later then, I guess you can eat this egg, and not have sex. Or. You can protect this egg and possibly have sex with me.

"Damn your evil women you know you know exactly what I want." Or your not trying to hide what you want you, stupid." I responded.

Chapter 11 Indy's point of view

I have this weird feeling it's like a tenth-sense. Then I heard the crashing footsteps then an ear-splitting roar

Great just what I need something fully-grown, I was lost in my thoughts, when I smelled fear, my body wanted to go hunt down that source and kill it, and devour it.

Wait, I'm still young if I had that emotion what would it do to the fully grown, monster.

SHIT, WE HAVE TO GET OUT OF HERE, the footsteps were getting louder.

CHAPTER 12 ALEX point of view

Girls are so weird we were hunting and an egg that would be a good snack, but now it's my adopted young. Now we are tracking a strong odor of fear, I just want to cuddle.

CHAPTER 12.5 THE EGG POINT OF VIEW

OW!

MY HEAD, what happened, I was being peacefully rocked back and forth, then a feeling of weightless swept over me then thump Ow, pain. Then I got a strong feeling of motherly love and compassion swept over me and then back to rocking back and forth, I quite like this.

CHAPTER 13 ~~humans point of view.~~ This is not about you odorous humans so bye.

The real CHAPTER 13 Mollie's point of view

What that smell I want it, but when we were close, I made a sharp turn to go home. If I remember my egghood. correctly, then it would be freezing, I wanted to keep this egg warm, for I have a connection to it.

We were close to home when I heard a "CRACK", I thought I must have bitten down a little too hard but then it happened again. Thank the god?, I don't apprehend who to thank, but we were home, It's hatching.

"ALEX!" I yelled.

"OW my ear, damn girl I'm right here Mollie" Did you change your mind and want to eat the egg or do you want to."

" Now you listen here you perverted little boy, never mind we can talk about this some other time. Sit down and get comfortable the egg is about to hatch."

"You positive?"

"Yeah, I'm convinced."

"What gender is it?"

I sniffed and reported back, "Male"

Alex was so happy to have a son, the biggest dilemma is going to be it not going to look like us, but my fears were in vain, for when he hatched he looked like us cause he had a tiny adorable fin on his back and was so damn adorable.

Chapter 14 baby point of view

Who are these incompetent parents, are they going to eat me, why are they staring at me like that?

Then my dad asked mom "you sure you don't want to eat him, meaning me so Nope.

"I'm Fucking leaving"

Woo not so fast there.

"YOUR GOING TO FUCKING EAT ME, IM NOT DOWN SO BYE."

Haa, my dads laughing at me, then mom growls at him, then she got up and spun around smacking dad with her tail and sitting back down with her tail blocking my escape. I guess I just got to fight my way out, so I clawed her tail.

"OW, DAMMIT, why did you just claw me?"

Because you're blocking my escape from not getting consumed today., with that I bit her tail.

Ok, enough of this shit she said, then got up and went for the killing blow, I closed my eyes waiting for the blow to land, thinking at least I died fighting, but that final blow never landed. She picked me up in front of my tiny sail and behind my head, and said, "I will let you go after you apologize to me and say you're lucky to have me as a mother."

"IN your dreams," I said, her simple response was "I can do this sleeping too."

I was up there for at least a day and was getting very thirsty so I finally said "sorry and how she's the best mother and all, she let me down and said not to do that again to her."

CHAPTER 15. OBSION POINT OF VIEW.

Sister, I still remember your smell, this girl named Saphira actual claims she saw you, I can't wait to be with you again.

"Obsion we never been apart, I been here the whole time, Is something wrong."

These are the imaginary conversations I have with my sister who is not here, by now she must of double in size for I know I have.

"Obsion" Growls the alpha

I heard the alpha growl, I give her something to growl at.

I said with my most sarcastic tone, "Thank you for your hospitality and saving me and all but I don't want to use it all up, so I'll be leaving have a good day." with that I got up and started to leave.

She ran and cut off my escape, "NOW YOU LISTEN TO ME OBSION, AS LONG AS IM STILL YOUR ALPHA you're GOING NOWHERE YOU UNDERSTAND!?"

"Move" I growled

"NOPE"

"THEN DIE" I ROARED, and charge at her and sliced her jugular open with my claws. Like that the alpha was no more, "anyone else wants to try to stop me, ok, good."

Good, so I was leaving to find my sister, then I heard footsteps behind me, so I turned and saw Saphira before I could say anything she said:" I'M COMING LIKE OR NOT, IM GOING WITH YOU."

"Fine so long as you don't get in my way" was my response

Chapter 16 Clark point of view, aka the babies name

"Mother."

"Yes Clark"

"I'm starving"

"Ok, ask your dad to hunt."

"Dad"

"ah, yes"

"I'm starving"

"Mom could hunt for you"

"She told me to tell you to get your lethargic ass up and get your son something to eat."

"Damn, I'm tired, but I have to listen to your mother."

"What do you want to eat?"

"While a baby T-rex would be nice"

"Fuck me. Dad said"

"Mom would say she wants to eat some T-rex to."

"Is that accurate"

"Yes, it is said, mom,"

" Why are you siding with the little guy? dad asked"

"Because he's hungry and so am I"

"But you just ate two days ago. dad said"

"That was small I'm hungry, go hunt and I would do you a favor later"

"Sure thing honey" dad said

"I wonder what favor mom would do for dad."

CHAPTER 17 ALEX'S POINT OF VIEW

I know precisely what favor I want to get down, but I know Mollie would most likely say no to have sex with me, but I deserve it if I'm going to hunt down a T-rex. I got up and stretched, I'm pretty sure she only saying T-rex so she would not have to go and kill the only other large carnivore on this island to make us the confirmed top predators.

Then mollie came out and said you think I would let you take out the T-rex on your own, you would have come back in pieces. Plus I'm very hungry, let's go eat ok. UM Hey mollie? I said

Yeah Alex

Would the kid be ok?

Most likely, for if anything kills it we would be going to kill the killers family in front of them and then kill them, for killing our kid. But for the most part, it would smell us there, then leave it alone.

Ok, I was just making sure, thank you for coming with me, This can be a date for us,

Don't push it, ok

Sure thing, we should call our kid Fin.

Fin? I quite like that name for him, let's ask him if he likes It when we get back.

"SILENCE"!, Mollie I growled.

She started to growl at me when she also smelled it, the food, it concerned me being this close to our territory, in fact, it was in our territory, but near the edge, but still in OUR TERRITORY, who the hell do they think they are. She said with her body language that I'm going to go in attack then she going to jump in and attack from the side, she started to creep into her position, but the prize smelled her. I'm not surprised she smells amazing.

CHAPTER 18 INDY'S POINT OF VIEW

My kid, I smell it, but Its parents would demolish me if they see me, to my complete fortune they both left to go hunt something that I feel pity for, for I would hate to be that thing.

My little brother living with those immense carnivores taking care of my tiny brother, I guess I won't have to take care of him as I thought, I better be heading home, I miss you Obsion.

CHAPTER 19 OBSESSION

A-chou, ouch, someone, must have been thinking about me for that sneezed hurt a lot. I wonder if My little sibling is doing ok, I know Indy is alright for a feeling tells me if she been In trouble, then I smelt a strong scent of urine, from a large carnivore, but thou that, I could smell her.

Indy has been here recently, but other than that, nothing, I don't know which way she went, damn it so close yet so far. Then I heard something, something to my left is dying I can hear the blood rushing in it lungs from hear, damn my sensitive hearing

CHAPTER 20 ALEX'S POV THE BATTLE OF THE TITANS

So Mollie you really want to fight these guys, “Yes I do, are you scared?” was her response.

“Of course, I'm petrified, do you see what we're up against, we can't sneak attack it since it already knows we're here.”

Mollie let off a scary roar, oh my she so sexy when she pissed off and wants to kill, oh my why won't she have my babies

Because you not matured, when you get wise and less hormonal then maybe, I know what your thinking and thank you for the compliment of looking sexy, your eyes convey everything away, maybe if you survive this fight.

Our adversaries roared even louder, this is going to be a hard fight, Then he stormed at us, his jaws wide open teeth still bloody from a recent kill, great, he coming straight for me, when he was in range I made my assault, on his incoming onslaught, by using my long forearm to claw into his face.

He cried with pain, but damn, he lucky I just missed taking his eye out, the blood just squirted out, seeing it made me crave it, just to rip into his thick hide, feeling his blood ripple through my fangs.

I did not have long to think about that fantasy for he is already charging back at me , no, not at me this time but Mollie.

CHAPTER 21 MOLLIES POV THE CONTENTION OF THE TITANS

That odorous creature is coming at me now, it's going to be his final vast mistake, for my claw and teeth impression that is going to transpire all over that disgusting muscular hide of his.

I'm actually quite content with my counterpart aka my mate for he is starting to get matured, all because of me, I'm not going to tell him that, because of its potential consequence it will have on him.

That scent in my nostril, that going through my Jacobson organ, is horrendous, It makes me want to retch, my stomach, but this is a battle and my "mate" might have some altruistic behavior, that means being suicidal for someone else.

I can't have my mate become ceased, for how would my population survive, I have to terminate this opponent's life and now He been circling around me and my mate for a while, I'm not waiting on him to strike, I'm going to end his advances. when he came a little bit closer I leaped within this standing engagement that would not cease.

I pounced and used my claws to rend his eyes from their sockets, Oh, his screams were ear piercing, I quelled him by killing him, with a violent jerk of my head and claws to snap his neck. With that, we were the top carnivores on the island.

AND THE BLOOD CAME POURING OUT LIKE A RIVER OF CRIMSON BEAUTY AND I TOOK ALL THAT, THAT ORIGIN HAD TO OFFER AND SAVED JUST ENOUGH FOR THE KID AT HOME, THAT WAS THE BEST FEAST I HAD IN A LONG TIME.

CHAPTER 22 Fin pov

When they arrived home, they were battered, bleeding, and bruised My mom sniffed to make sure I was all right, and not damage, Dad said he smelled something, a female carnivore small yet unfamiliar His inexperience forced him to get mother to smell it since she the wiser and more familiarity one of most everything on this island.

When mom sniffed it her sail raised even higher her growl was an obvious warning, that something is going wrong, she never been afraid it is making my dad alarmed, and making me terrified.

When I perceived the fragrance, that made my mother, afraid, I got excited, I know that smell. I Smelted it on MY egg, yes it was faint, but It's my sister who curled up around me. Then it hit me why my adopted mom was afraid.

She was frightened that my sister would come to take me her child away from her, I felt remorseful for her, she had me, but not that in that way I know you people reading this, you most likely are perverted, not she did not Lay me stop using your perverted mind for one book.

My sister, she was here I miss her, I never got to see her. How is she doing without me, Think, use your brain If she came close she knows you are here. If she here she alive, If she's alive she alright, and she might come back. Only thing wrong is that mom may have my so-called father or she might stay back now with me.

Chapter 23 Mollie meets Obsion.

That other family is here to take my son away from me judging by the look on Fin's face he knows that there related, yet he does not smell his brother that came a little bit later but still has yet to leave my turf.

I hear him cry softly for me, I still pondering on eating him, yet I still already had my share of the feast, so I go to meet this trespasser on my land. I have to say even though he not even remotely like my species he's tranquil. When I approached he said, I'm not here for trouble and I will like to leave in one place.

Go I said, I will talk to you tomorrow, I don't want this to get ugly and my family might come out and not give you a chance like I'm giving you, so run along now before I change my mind and with that I let loss a stifled growl so my family won't hear it, but this intruder will.

He caught the drift and turned around and left, I mimicked him and went back to my family. Alex's asked if everything alright, no it's not, But I responded calmly by saying "yeah, that smell was terrible it burned my nostrils." I lied.

My brain is still trying to wrap itself around what that male wants. I decide to sleep on it. Alex asked if I was alright again because I'm going to relax. "In the middle of the day", I told him I'm tired that's all.

Chapter 24.0, not a real chapter: back to the pack, more like an author's note I'm going to bring some characters from the beginning back for its been a long time, on Fin mollie, Alex, obsion, indy, and Saphira, but back to young Ken and Sarah

Chapter 24 Back to the pack Of Sarah pov,

So, Sarah what you want to chew on, ken asked

While I guess we can be pandora's egg and remove some little compys, I responded

(Scoff) that's an easy kill, how about something more challenging, the baby spino". Ken said

It's my turn to scoff

(Scoff) you must be fucking mad, do you want to have dinner or BE DINNER, that's not a hunt, that's a massacre, for us, not it, US.

"What could go wrong," Ken said

"Ok, I did not want to say this but, If you go I will not be your mate." That stopped him dead in his tracks, he asked I lying I said do you still want to hunt the baby spino, he said yes.

So I said "good luck" and I walked away, from him

He continued on his way only to realize I was not with him, he immediately turned around and ran full speed to me, saying I'm sorry, I wanted to prove my strength to you.

THEN DON'T BE TRYING TO GET YOURSELF KILLED I screamed at him while crying

He nuzzled his nose into my shoulder and said "I'm so sorry I did not mean to get you upset but I wanted to prove to you I could take care not only you but for me and eventually our family. I love you Sarah and I will always love you"

"I love you too Ken", I said while still crying

Chapter 25 ken point of view

I really wanted to just go see the new baby spino. If they would have chased after us I would have sacrificed myself, for Sarah. I know she looks down on me, so I really want to try to prove to her. That I can take care of both of us.

Seeing her really cry for me, made me want to try even harder, yet it also sent me a revelation. That she needs me, how can I help her, when she is in distraught, from the thought of me leaving her. I really want her, for my partner. I was thinking about all the bad things that I have done to her, Then I was the one crying. Damn, how much did I not want her to see me like this, broken down crying?

It was her turn to comfort me, telling me it's alright, nothing bad is going to happen, and I believed her until the events of the terrible humans returning.

They chased after Sarah, they looked like they were hellbent to get only her. Until I threw myself forcefully into the confusing mayhem. Then a loud POP, followed by something sharp piercing my side It was very cold yet, I was burning from the pain, I saw my blood leaving me, A white flash and a powerful high pitched pop went off, with it my vision, I could only see white.

My senses of hearing and sight, have left me I was suffering in pain from whatever made that loud pop. I tried to use my scent of smell, but the air was acidity from whatever those humans were using.

I was afraid, Fighting for my life and also Sarah, then it happened, everything went from white to black my hearing was returning, and I heard Sarah roaring my name, then I lose consciences, and with it Sarah.

Chapter 26 Sarah pov

“Kenny where are you” I was screaming so loud my throat was hurting, from yelling. Then these humans who have kidnapped me, Stuck something sharp in my neck, It brought back monstrous memories of when I was In captivity.

My dreams were not remote tranquil, images of other creatures suffering, dying, and an old woman saying to me, That will be you someday when the humans push you to your physical, and mental edge and then going past it that's what happens to that guy over there I looked over I saw a poor creature foaming at the mouth, and bleeding in multiple places, his eyes were blood-shot, crying in pain, then his eyes rolled up in his head and just died.

Where are you ken I'm really Frightened, and fearful that they will take my life away from me, You told me they would never come back but now they're here and it feels like they will kill me without losing a drop of sweat.

The old lady always scared me, and never been wrong before Is It my time to die, will It be as cruel as that boy's death. Or would it be blissful, easy painless death, yet I don't want to die at all.

"So what do you want," I snarled At him menacingly

"Woo." Don't growl at me like that

"What's stopping me from not growling at you," I asked

"You were the one who came on your own I did not force you, so If you want to know information only I can provide," he said, oh how I hated him so much for that remark.

Ok, little one tell me what you got. I said to him

"Brace yourself". He said

Those humans are back, That presence you scenced was my sister.

So what does that have anything to do with My knid.

You think its his mother, most likely the kid also think that, because her scent should still be on the egg.

To be honest I never thought of it like that.
